

Rules for guests in AB Njal

- Laundry machines, tumble dryers and noisy tools, are not to be used between 8 pm and 7 am, in weekends between 8 pm and 9 am.
- Noisy activities in the courtyard are not allowed after 10 pm.
- Ball playing in the courtyard is forbidden.
- TV, radio, music and other noisy activities should be managed in a way, which is not a nuisance to other residents.
- In case of a party being planned, the other residents of the stairway, and other affected neighbours, should be notified well in advance, with a written notification at the bulletin board next to the main stairway door.
- Animals are not allowed.
- All doors and gates are to be kept closed and locked at all times.
- No objects (shoes, bicycles, trash etc.) must be placed in the stairways, doorways, courtyard or other common areas.
- Child carriages can be placed in the assigned sheds in the courtyard.
- Ventilation from the apartment into the stairways is forbidden. Use the windows. To avoid moisture in the apartment daily ventilation is advised.
- Trash is to be sorted in the correct containers in the courtyard.

Enjoy your stay, take general care of the building, clean up after yourself and respect your neighbours.

*This is a translation of selected house rules, provided in English for guests in the building.
This is not a legal document. The official legal documents for house- and courtyardrules are "Husorden for Andelsboligforeningen Njal (AB Njal)" and "Ordenregler for gården", which are located at the website www.abnjal.dk.
The registered resident of the flat is responsible for any violation of the official houserules on behalf of anyone else using the apartment.*